Perched atop a seaside bluff, surrounded by panoramic views of the Pacific and the sandy shores of Salt Creek Beach below, the Ritz-Carlton, Laguna Niguel is a coastal haven of new experiences. Located halfway between LA and San Diego, along the coast of Dana Point, the resort awakens the senses with its vibrant beachfront locale and celebrated Five Diamond service. Sprawling shoreline vistas create awe-inspiring memories from the moment of arrival. Dine on Southern California coastal cuisine, explore your surfside surroundings on an eco-adventure, or soothe with a spa escape.

Since opening in 1984, the Ritz-Carlton, Laguna Niguel has earned top honors from hotel and restaurant critics. Its world-class status and setting on a 150-foot cliff above the Pacific have attracted stays by Presidents Ford, Carter and Reagan and celebrities such as Michael Jackson.

At the Ritz-Carlton, Laguna Niguel, there is a legacy of extraordinary service for not only its guests but also its local communities. Through the Community Footprints program, they are dedicated to improving the lives of others by leaving impactful imprints on their communities. The resort actively participates in enhancing the lives of community members in Laguna Beach, Dana Point, and the surrounding areas through programs such as Canine Companions, Surfers Healing, and Miracles for Kids.
